

PARTICIPATORY PROCESS AND COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

VIRTUAL TRAINING

DECEMBER 16TH, 2022

12PM-1PM

(VIRTUAL LUNCH & LEARN,
1 CEU IS AVAILABLE FOR SOCIAL WORKERS,
MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPISTS, MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELORS, PSYCHOLOGISTS,
ADDICTION PROFESSIONALS, AND CERTIFIED
PEER SUPPORTS (CAPRC, CHW, CRS))

Join the IRN and learn how to learn defining the Participatory Process, benefits of utilizing a participatory process when creating your RCO, and Participatory Process methods. for RCO's

- Attendees will learn the definition the Participatory Process.
- Attendees will learn the benefits of utilizing a participatory process when creating your RCO
- Attendees will be provided with foundational knowledge of Participatory Process methods.
- Attendees will learn how community asset mapping can be useful when forming community partnerships, developing programs for the RCO, and service delivery to meet the needs of community members.
- Attendees will learn about community partners who exist throughout the state and how to connect with these established potential partners.

Limited space is available.

Questions: Chazz Porter cporter@mhai.net

Registration: https://bit.ly/PP_CP